What can be achieved in 2023?

What does 2023 hold for you, your school and your community? The start of a new year presents the opportunity to look ahead to all that is to come over the next 12 months. A chance to define the hopes and aspirations for the people we care for, including the children and young people who attend our schools. A time to set goals and targets for the next twelve months. As Christians, we may consider what God is calling us to do, the places He is leading us to, and where we should be focussing our time and energy in this new year.

A consideration for all of us in 2023, is how we are actively caring for our environment, seeking to look after God's creation and reducing the damage caused through our carbon footprint. The Church of England made an ambitious pledge at General Synod in 2020 to reach net zero by 2030, with schools a part of this pledge. The DBE is to make this a focus for our work in 2023, aiming to work alongside our schools and pupils, looking at the fabric of our school buildings and energy use, to pledge to reduce our carbon use and each play our part in our responsibilities to protect our planet.

The DBE will be setting its own goals and targets for schools around this and we are keen to hear from schools that are interested in taking a lead and being directly involved in this important work. The article on page 2 shares one way in which your school can get involved through the energy improvement grant, announced recently by the DfE. However daunting and challenging these targets may seem, when we come together, we can achieve so much more. Throughout the Bible, God's people accomplish unfathomable tasks. God is most glorified by bringing an event to pass which seems impossible. "With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible," [Matthew 19:26] Let's see what we can achieve together in 2023.

Moving towards Net Carbon Zero

As you may know Chester diocese has a link with the Anglican Church of Melanesia and we are in the process of refreshing links between schools in this diocese with schools in Melanesia. One of the areas that will be an important part of the link is the understanding of children and young people in this diocese about the environmental impact of global warming, felt first hand by the people of Melanesia and how what we do here, impacts directly there. The islands of Melanesia are at risk of rising sea levels with coastal communities in danger of disappearing and we have a desire and duty to support them. You can find out more about what the church is doing through the Green Apostles Program in this area of the world or you might explore Christian Aid's 'Letters for Creation'. There is also a series of webinars from the Church of England on “Getting Net Carbon Zero” including information for schools, here GNCZ Webinars. As individual schools, you could begin to consider the changes that can be made to your daily actions in order to support the Carbon Zero aim.

One way would be to consider how you use your share of the £500 million funding announced by the DfE for schools across the country to spend on energy improvement measures.

This funding has been made available as an additional allocation of DFC for all schools. Chester DBE has now received the allocation for VA schools as the responsible body. We are seeking your interest in joining with other North-West schools to make the most of the money on offer:

In partnership with DBE Services who serve hundreds of schools across the region, we wish to bring as many schools together as possible to make the most efficient use of these funds. Our proposition is that DBE Services procure the delivery of:

- LED lighting,
- Photovoltaic Panels (PV Solar Panels),
- Electric Vehicle (EV) Chargers
- and Cavity Wall Insulation

so that we can bring best practice and best value for every VA school involved.

We understand that schools are under significant pressure financially and we believe these measures will help to ease the burden. We are now finding that every £10,000 invested could deliver around £2,000 of revenue savings, year on year, at the current price of electricity so we believe that by joining together we can get more back for every pound spent. Of course, there are environmental benefits too which is high on the agenda of the Church of England and Chester Diocese.

There is no commitment required at this stage but if you are interested in our proposition, please return an expression of interest by Friday 20th January 2023.

After we have assessed the interest from schools, we will get back to you with next steps.

Holocaust Memorial Day opportunities for schools

Holocaust Memorial Day (HMD) is on the 27th of this month, and we have lots of opportunities for you to engage staff and students with the day:

School materials

We have a huge range of free resources for teachers that you can browse and download at www.hmd.org.uk/schools.

Online book launch event for teachers

On Wednesday 11th January, 4-5pm we are hosting an online event with Holocaust survivor and author Peter Lantos talking about and reading from his new novel The Boy Who Didn't Want to Die, which describes an extraordinary journey made by Peter at the age of five, through war-torn Europe in 1944 and 1945. You can submit questions to Peter in advance, and prize draw will be conducted during the event for one attending teacher to win a classroom set of books, donated by the publisher - Scholastic Children's Books.

Register for free on our Eventbrite page.

Ordinary People Film

New for HMD 2023 we have created a short version of the UK Online Commemoration film, suitable for screening at local HMD activities. Perfect for schools, local councils and many more settings, this 20-minute film will provide an introduction to your own HMD activity and set the scene for your audience as we hear testimony from Holocaust and genocide survivors about their experiences.

Download the film for free here: hmd.org.uk/ordinarypeoplefilm

Register for the UK Online Commemoration for HMD 2023 and order resources

The full UK Online Commemoration for HMD 2023 will be streamed on Thursday 26 January at 7pm. You can register to watch the commemoration on our website: hmd.org.uk/ukhmd/

Please feel free to share this link with parents who may like to watch the commemoration.

Also, new for this year, you can order a commemorative HMD candle when you register, to light in your window for the Light the Darkness national moment at 4pm on Holocaust Memorial Day, 27 January. You can order commemorative candles, stickers, booklets and other resources on our website: hmd.org.uk/resource/order-resources/

Let us know

Please let us know about the activities that you have planned for HMD 2023 and become part of the national picture of HMD across the UK: You can add your school to the HMD map at hmd.org.uk/letusknow

Diversity Resources – Anthony Walker Foundation

Since our annual Head Teacher and Senior Leaders' conference in 2021, it has been a privilege to work more closely with the Anthony Walker Foundation. The testimony and heartfelt, faith-driven conviction of Gee Walker to forgive her son's racially motivated murderers was truly humbling. Catherina Quinn, the Education Lead Officer at AWF has already led an inspiring session for our CPD programme last autumn raising awareness of developing an understanding of anti-racist practice, addressing racial equity in education and racial bias.

Continuing our support of their work, we are keen to highlight two of the Foundation's sessions which support all primary and secondary schools in progressing anti-racism:

- Celebration of Diversity Assemblies/workshops yr 1-6 Explains important concepts such as racial prejudice, discrimination and anti-racist allyship. The workshops share Anthony's story at an age appropriate level, his legacy and pupils explore how important it is to love and respect difference. AWF strongly encourages early interventions with primary age pupils that helps shape a more inclusive and caring school community where everyone is valued and respected.
- Speak Out Stop Hate workshops/assemblies yr 6-13 were set up in response to an alarming number of hate crimes going unreported. These workshops focus on racism and hate crime awareness. Pupils learn of Anthony's story, how hate incidents can quickly escalate into hate crimes and the consequences. Pupils explore why so many hate incidents go unreported and they are introduced to the AWF Hate Crime reporting tool.

Please visit the Education section of the Foundation's website for more details:

News from Schools

Guilden Sutton

During December, the children at our school took part in a 'Reindeer Run' to raise money for the Hospice of the Good Shepherd. They all put on their antlers and ran several times around the school field, having first collected sponsorship money from their family and friends. Head teacher, Mrs Rainford, was chosen by the children to wear the Santa outfit and run with the reindeer. They had previously had a visit from 'Kelly the Elf' who shared with the children all the work that goes on at the Hospice of the Good Shepherd and how their money can help. In total, we raised £2,457.30!

Children in Reception and Key Stage 1 walked to St. John The Baptist Church in Guilden Sutton to take part in a Christmas Service. Some of our families joined us there. They sang some songs from 'Wriggly Nativity' that they had performed in school the week before. Children took part in readings and prayers. They heard the story of the nativity from the animals' point of view.

Year 1 had a wonderful trip to Chester Cathedral to take part in 'The Nativity On The Move'. They watched performances of the nativity around the cathedral grounds and also enjoyed making their own Christmas decoration and nativity sequence.

Hartford High

Christmas brings many things to mind. A time to rest and relax with family and friends; to eat delicious food from the 'naughty list'; to down tools from busy school schedules... and to breath! It is also a wonderful opportunity to remember the reason we celebrate: Immanuel, God with us. There have been so many opportunities to be involved with Christmas Services, but the absolute highlight for me was our school Carol Service on 14 December at St. John's Church in Hartford.

Our students had been practicing the Christmas carols in their music lessons and then boldly sang out gospel truths with gusto - 'Saviour's Day' raised the roof! Our school orchestra beautifully accompanied everything and also performed a wonderful Pachelbel's Christmas.

Readers, dancers and the school choir all added to the Services.

I believe all students, staff and parents were truly blessed. My prayer is that as the Christmas lights are switched off and the long dark days remain, the truths of what our students have proclaimed will continue to burn brightly in their hearts and lives in this new year and forever.

Having just received our Eco School Green Flag Award with Merit, our Eco Group have continued to work really hard to improve our school environment. Throughout December, School Council Reps from each form began planting a woodland area (with saplings from the Woodland Trust) of hazel, blackthorn, elder, dog-rose and hawthorn to improve grounds and increase biodiversity. We are now planning a Time Capsule to bury among them. Watch this space...

Hoole

At the beginning of December, Mrs Robertson, Mrs Inns and 19 children visited Rose Villa on Lightfoot Street where they sang Christmas Carols for the residents and our Ethos Ambassadors shared a reflection about the angels visiting the shepherds. We were given a box of celebrations! They then journeyed along to BELONG on City Road and sang carols to a gathering of residents and some children from the nursery. They were warmly applauded and the audience joined in with gusto on the 12 Days of Christmas! The Ethos Ambassadors then shared readings from the Bible story of the Angel's appearing to the Shepherds. They also presented them with some angels to hang on the Christmas tree which they had made with messages of Hope, Peace and Love for the season. After a final set of songs including, Unto us a Child is born and Rejoice with us this Christmas, the choir and Ethos Children had a drink and a biscuit before their journey back to school.

We were so very proud of our amazing children who visited to All Saints Church earlier in December. Our choir sang a selection of songs, including 'Unto Us a Child is Born' and 'Rejoice with us this Christmas'. The Ethos Ambassadors led the cafe attendees in a reflection of the Angels and presented the church with a Christmas card and a variety of angels for their tree. We were treated to a cup of hot chocolate and a chocolate treat at the end. The children also were able to join in with a hug Nativity Art picture while they listened to the organ being played.

Moreton Christchurch

Part of our school's vision is to 'serve the Lord with a heart full of devotion....' Our year 4 children reflected on this and focussed on the Christian value of service to spread joy in the community. They went to Harvest Court residential home to spread some Christmas cheer! They sang songs for the residents and distributed homemade Christmas cards. It was a joy to see the residents smiling and the children were certainly blessed by the joy it brought to the community.

Saighton

It was a real privilege to collaborate with a number of Church of England schools nationally and record the beautiful song, 'The Blessing'. This will be shown at the opening of The Church of England's Foundation for Educational Leadership's National Conference: Flourishing Together on the 27th January in London. 'The Blessing' is a very moving song and we explored its meaning with the children and God's incredible love for the world. It is fast becoming a favourite for the Year 6 Leavers' Service.

Stockport St Thomas

St Thomas' held various events during the month of December. We had our EYFS, KS1 and KS2 nativity performances, the children made Christmas decorations for our Christmas Tree and each year group went to St Thomas' Church to take part in Christmas Workshops with Rev Marie. The children also enjoyed taking part in our Christingle Service at Church.

Stretton St Matthews

We have had a lovely time during the festive period. Class R decorated our own Christmas tree and the large Christmas tree in the dining hall. We played Christmas music as we did so and the children enjoyed a little dance.

We have also been busy making paper chains and decorating pinecones to put on the Christmas tree. Everyone made a snowman, Christmas card and a beautiful Rudolph bag to take everything home in.

We performed our Nativity today for our families and everyone agreed, it was amazing.

Well done Class R!

Tilston Parochial

Our nursery, reception, year 1 & 2 children retold the Christmas story through their performance, 'A King is Born'. This year we put on a special performance for grandparents which they thoroughly enjoyed.

We were delighted to welcome parents to our beautiful Christingle service at St Mary's Church for the first time in three years.

The key stage 2 children shared Bible readings, prayers and sang a selection of songs and helped to spread Christmas cheer.

It's been wonderful sharing this special time with our children and families and making wonderful memories together.
